Dare Me

Pizza for dinner isn't exactly the most daring choice. So let's spice things up by daring each other to do something nice for someone else. Pick one of these four options:

- Give this date menu to another couple (after you're done with it of course). If you want to get really crazy, give it to a couple of complete strangers.
- Buy another couple's dinner at the restaurant. You could even go over and introduce yourselves if you want to make some new friends.
- Order another couple a pizza and have it sent to their house. Be sure to tell the pizza delivery guy that it's a surprise and they aren't expecting it.
- Call or text another couple who have been great friends and let them know how much you appreciate them.

Keep it Going

Make three coupons for your spouse to do something nice for them no questions asked—clean the bathroom, unload the dishwasher, give a back rub, etc. Give the coupons to your spouse to be used at any time they see fit. Then, actually do the thing you said you would once they cash in the favor.
