

Beautiful Marriage Curriculum Guide

Beautiful marriages are complicated and diverse but we have come to realize that practicing certain habits can help them thrive: Putting God first, Having Serious fun, Respect and Love, Healthy Communication, and Practicing your Promise. The following studies focus on these habits and help you increase them in your marriage.

Your Best Us* by Ted Lowe

- Recommended as a first study, gives framework for habits mentioned above.
- On RightNow Media (RNM), digital guides available from church

The Art of Marriage* by FamilyLife

- 6 Sessions, based on content from their excellent Weekend to Remember marriage retreat.
- On RNM, workbook needed

Vertical Marriage* by FamilyLife

- 5 session, great on helping couples interact with each other.
- In church library, workbook needed

Love & Respect* by Emerson & Sarah Eggerichs

- 10 sessions with some longer videos, but great content and worth the time.
- On RNM, workbook needed

Love Talk* by Les & Leslie Parrott
